"Steve Emt is an outstanding motivational speaker. As I looked around the auditorium, not one person was on their cell phone and everyone was engaged. This in itself is a testimony to his ability to capture his audience! His message was truly inspiring. Every day we encounter different situations, it's how we respond that sets us apart. I would highly recommend everyone to listen to his remarkable story!" - MaryJo Archambault, CTRS, EdD Southern CT State University

After high school, Steve chose to attend the United States Military Academy at West Point, NY playing both soccer and basketball. Steve also attended the University of Connecticut playing basketball for the legendary coach Jim Calhoun.

In March of 1995, Steve's life took a dramatic turn when a car accident changed his life forever. After hours of surgery and days in a coma, he woke up to learn that he was paralyzed from the waist down and would never walk again. Realizing it was time to make the decision to change his life, Steve went back to school to get his teaching certificate and taught middle school math for the next twenty years. During that time, he also coached the same high school boys' basketball team that he once starred for.

During the summer of 2013, a chance encounter introduced Steve to the sport of curling when he not only fell in love with the sport but realized that his dream of being an Olympian may still be attainable. Through hard work, commitment, and dedication, Steve earned a position on Team USA in the Winter of 2014 and has remained with the team ever since. To date, Steve is a 6-time National Champion, has competed in 5 World Championships and the 2018 Paralympic Games. He continues to work hard towards earning another spot on the team that will compete in the 2022 Paralympic Games to be held in Beijing, China.
